

Nora Dahabeya

Nora is a replica of a 19th-century Dahabiya and is as beautiful as her name - classically elegant and inspired by the golden age of Nile travel. The upper deck features an expansive lounge and dining area. Antique lamps and chandeliers illuminate the wooden sundeck, while beautifully embroidered cushions, deckchairs, a hammock, sofas, and loungers line each side. It is easy to relax beneath her billowing white sails on the shaded sundeck. As you cruise along the Nile, there's always beauty that passes your eye. Inside the boat there is a spacious saloon, bathed in natural light from the large louvred windows. The saloon has two distinct areas; one side styled with comfortable chairs and sofas, and the other with a dining table and a library stocked with books about Egypt and the Nile.

There are four luxury cabins and two terrace suites, each with an en-suite bathroom, equipped with everything you need. At the rear of the Dahabiya are 2 superb suites, with private balconies overlooking the Nile. The remaining 4 cabins are no less magical, surrounded by large French windows, giving magnificent views of the Nile.

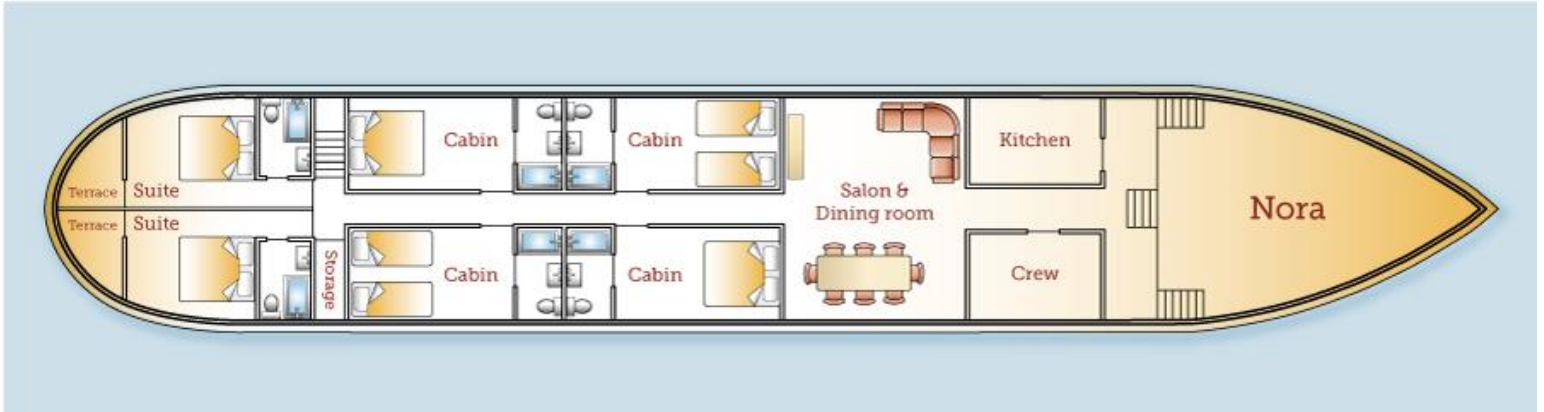

4 Luxury Cabins - Great views, inside and out

Individually and elegantly styled, super-comfy cabins, providing a generous space for a comfortable stay, yet they still feel romantically cosy. The four en-suite cabins are large and air-conditioned. All are equally delightful, with louvred French windows, giving spectacular Nile views. Each cabin includes two twin beds or one king-sized bed. There's also space for an extra bed and baby cot in each. These cabins are classically Egyptian in every way, with fine antique furniture, Egyptian rugs, floral wallpaper, and handmade tapestries. The large ensuite bathrooms come with lovely antique tiles floors, a bathtub and shower, plenty of towels, and old-fashioned Egyptian toiletries.

2 Panoramic Suites - Sleeping beauties & private balconies

At the end of the central corridor are two large suites, complete with French windows and private spacious balconies for expansive views of the river. Both are wonderfully romantic and have antique four-post beds. Every suite is spacious enough to accommodate an additional bed if you need it. A sense of nostalgic charm and homely atmosphere lingers. Décor is kept simple and striking with white walls, parquet floors, antique furniture, vintage wallpapers, oil paintings, and handmade tapestries. The ensuite bathrooms have baths as well as showers and are lined with beautiful handmade Egyptian tiles. Complimentary old-fashioned Egyptian toiletries, bathrobes and hair dryers are provided.
